FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

ADDRESS OF WELCOME BY MAYOR JOHN GRANT.

President Worsley Replies, and Reviews the Work of a Volunteer—The Parade and Other Features of the Day Described.

The officers and members of the Northwestern Firemen's Association, together with a large number of visitors, among whom were many ladies, assembled at the City Hall at 9:30 this morning. His worship Mayor Grant was introduced to the assembly by President Worsley, and in welcoming the visitors, said he was seldom in the habit of making apologies, but would ask them to excuse the fact that he was suffering from a bad cold. He welcomed them one and all in the name of the citizens and firemen of the city of Victoria. He thought it was indicative of a good state of feeling between the United States and Canada to see here so large a delegation of visitors from the other side of the line, and trusted this would exist through all time, and that the bonds of friendship would never be broken. Speaking of the firemen of both countries he would say that he had a regard for them, as in times of danger firemen were ready at all times to risk life and health in saving the property of their fellow citizens. No other class of men faced death in so many forms. He felt that he was performing one of the most pleasant duties he had performed during the four years of his civic career in welcoming the men he saw before him. The Association, comprising members from Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and Manitoba did much good. The exchange of ideas was rendered possible by the meetings of the Association and the best measures of fighting fire could be devised and improvements could be adopted which largely reduced risks, and gave the best results in dealing with the dreaded foe. He saw from reports that schools had been provided for the furtherance of ideas in firemen's work. It was not necessary to enumerate the many risks of a fireman's life, but he considered it would be wise for the Association to take up the question of a relief fund, and advised that steps be taken to form such a fund. A modicum could be contributed monthly by the members, and an amount set aside to relieve members when occasion arose. He would not apologize for the damp weather, as a bad begginning might have a good ending. He trusted that the elements would be auspicious, and did not think Victoria would make an exception in the weather on this occasion. Speaking of the Victoria department the Mayor reviewed the excellent work done by the men, complimented Chief Deasy and the members on the remarkably small losses which had occurred, and considered the citizens were fortunate in having so able a body of men to look after their interests. He considered these annual tournaments of great good, as they gave the men a chance to drill for increased activity. Such activity was a guarantee that the men would do quick and good work when called upon for duty. He was sure that a friendly spirit prevailed between the members, and knew if help from other cities was needed in Victoria it would be given generously. He trusted this feeling of good friendship would continue. This he understood was the first meeting on Canadian soil, but he trusted it would not be the last. In a very neat way the Mayor complimented the local officers of the insurance companies and citizens on the generous way they had met the collectors for the tournament and in an eloquent manner he then extended a hearty welcome to the visitors from the several fire departments, and trusted their stay in Victoria would be a pleasant one. (Cheers and applause.)

President Worsley responded on behalf of the association and those who had visited the city to-day. Victoria had done her work in the becoming and well known way of the British, whose generosity was proverbial. While he had been in the president's chair he had worked hard for the association. He reviewed the work of volunteer firemen and detailed the personal experiences of the man who takes his life in his hand to fight fire without hope or reward. In a very able manner President Worsley described the work of volunteer firemen and the difficulties they contended against. In the name of the N. W. F. A. he accepted the hospitality of Victoria, as it was given, with an open hand. The firemen of both the United States and Canada were banded together in a common cause to fight fire, and should do all in their power to promote good feeling and friendship. He would say that it was the intention of the directors to see to it that everything would be done to make things go smoothly and to do away with all possible causes of trouble. He would again accept the hospitality of Victorians and thank Mayor Grant and the citizens most heartily. (Cheers.)

The minutes of the last meeting of the Association having been read and adopted, President Worsley named a committee on credentials composed of Chiefs Kellogg of Seattle, Parker of Astoria, Carlisle of Vancouver, and Deasy of Victoria. The meeting then adjourned for fifteen minutes for the report of the committee.

THE PARADE.

After the convention had again been called to order the committee reported it as advisable to hold the parade at once, and an adjournment was made for that purpose, and the following line of march was formed:

Cordon of Police.
Walcott's Band, (16 pieces)
Steamer John Grant.
No. 3 Reel and Company.
Steamer Tiger.
No. 4 Hose Wagon.
No. 2 Truck (Shackles on guard).
Steamer Deluge.
No. 2 Reel.
Nanaimo Hose Team.
Westminster Hose Team.
Seattle Hose Team.
Hacks and Citizens.

The designated route was then gone over and the procession dismissed. In spite of the downpour of rain large crowds thronged the streets to see the parade, which was very pretty, the firemen having the apparatus beautifully decorated. The music by Walcott's band was complimented on all sides, and was certainly deserving of the praise.

The unfortunate state of the weather was against the parade, and on account of the rain many did not turn out, but it was very creditable in spite of that drawback.

TIMEKEEPERS AND JUDGES.

A meeting of the board of directors was held this afternoon, and the following gentlemen were appointed judges: J. H. Carlisle of Vancouver, Mayor Grant of Victoria, H. C. Hipple of Portland, Chas. Ahlmann of Tacoma, and John Fox of Astoria. Timekeepers: C. F. Merritt of Port Angeles, J. H. Carlisle of Vancouver, and F. L. Parker of Astoria. It was then decided, owing to the bad state of the weather, to postpone the championship race until to-morrow at half-past nine in the morning, at which hour it will be started.

The meeting then adjourned until half-past seven this evening when the officers of the association for next year will be elected.

CHIEF DEASY.

The Capable Head of Victoria's Efficient Fire Department.

The present chief of the Victoria Fire Department, Mr. Thos. Deasy, although only 35 years of age, is an old and experienced fireman. He was born in Portsmouth, England, in 1857, and came to Victoria with his father, one of the Royal Engineers, in 1859, and has lived here ever since. He joined the Volunteer Fire Department when 13 years of age as lantern boy. When he was 16 years old he became a member of the bucket brigade. It was one of the rules of the department that a member must be 18 years old before he became a regular firemen, so as soon as the subject of this sketch reached that age he became a regular member of the Hook & Ladder Company. During the lively times of the seventies and eighties, when the three companies used to make such efforts to reach a fire first, Tom was holding the office of 2nd and 1st assistant foreman and foreman of the Hook & Ladder Company. As a volunteer fireman he also held the position of assistant engineer. When the department was taken over by the city and turned into a paid department he was elected assistant engineer by the ratepayers. He served in that position for two years, when he ran for the position of chief engineer against the late Chas. Phillips, who had held the position for many years, and Henry Rudge. He received more votes than both of the other candidates. That was four years ago, and since then he has held the position with honor to himself and advantage to those whom he serves.

Since Mr. Deasy has had charge of the department it has been known as one of the best on the coast. The men all think highly of their chief, and the consequence is that they go to work with a will. During the four years that he has held office the loss by fire has been less than any other four years in the history of the city. Only three frame buildings were burned down, and they were so far out of the reach of the department that it was impossible to save them. This is phenomenal when the size of the city is considered, and also when the scattered condition of the residences is taken into account. The fire halls are in the center of the city, and when a fire breaks out in the residential portion the boys have a long run, but they "get there," urged on by a good chief.

Chief Deasy has been most energetic in increasing the efficiency of the department. When he was first elected chief he had two old engines, an old hook and ladder wagon and a couple of hand hose reels to fight fires with. Now the machines belonging to the department represent many thousand dollars. The two old engines have been made as good as new and a larger one added. The best hook and ladder truck on the Pacific coast belongs to the Victoria Fire Department, besides which there are three splendid hose reels and wagons. All the machines are drawn by horses and the latter are the pride of the boys. They are all well trained, and know their duties as well as their keepers. Everything in the department is kept in perfect order by the men under Chief Deasy, and it is well worth a visit to the fire halls to see the animals and apparatus. The department costs the city $20,000 per year, which sum is judiciously expended. The loss so far this year has been less than $4000.

CHIEF DEASY.

LEPERS AT VANCOUVER.

The Two Unfortunate Chinamen Returned From Swift Current.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26.—Last Sunday two lepers who arrived here to sail for China on the Empress of Japan were sent east again, the intention being to return them to New York. At Swift Current, however, the railway people put the car on the return train, under orders from Montreal, the Dominion Government having positively refused to run any risk of shipping them to New York, and the United States government having refused in equally as positive a manner to take them. The Chinese were sent here in bond, and the American government's contention is that by letting some of the Chinese out of the car and returning these the bond was broken, and they are therefore not responsible in any way. As the matter now stands there is somewhat of a difficulty in knowing what to do with the lepers. The mayor has positively refused to allow them admission to the city and placed policemen on guard over the shack in which they are kept with instructions to allow no one to remove them or set them free. In the meantime the authorities at Ottawa have been communicated with, and the chances are that the case will be ventilated in the courts as to the responsibility of the Dominion government in allowing the parties affected with this loathsome disease to enter the country. The position which the Canadian Pacific Railway may be placed in as common carriers, and the question as to whether these and similar cases should be maintained by this corporation will be involved. In the meantime there is an intense excitement.

A Queer Story.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 28.—Dr. W. C. Negus, of Binghampton, N. Y., came to Homestead, in this country, about ten days ago and recovered his seven year old son from C. C. Long. The doctor told a story that the lad was the son of a wealthy Portland, Oregon, man, and had been kidnapped six years ago. He (Negus) was a government detective and had recaptured the boy after a long search and would get $5000 for his trouble. Long has got tired of the unpleasant notoriety it gave him and now tells his side of the case. Long says that some years ago, while living at Richburg, N. Y., he employed Mrs. Negus to care for his parents, who were very old. She brought her boy along, having been divorced from the doctor. Long and the woman fell in love and were married. After the death of the elder Mrs. Long they removed to this country. Last March Long's wife died and when Dr. Negus heard of it he became anxious to have his boy back, so he came on to Homestead, saw Long and without any difficulty recovered the little fellow. Long is at a loss to understand the father's motive for telling the abduction case.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

MINISTER RIBOT MAKES A MODERATE SPEECH.

Cruel Treatment of the Jews in Russia—Grape-Growers Beaten by the Phylloxera—Balkan Royalties Down in the World.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—M. Ribot's speech at the unveiling of the Faedherbe statue has had a quieting effect upon the European stock and financial centers. It is construed as a dignified and moderate reply on the part of France to the intemperate utterances lately attributed to the Kaiser. No more favorable occasion for France could have been selected for the declaration than a dedication to the memory of Faedherbe. He was one of the few generals in the war of 1870 who performed achievements that his country remember with pride, and the place of dedication was the scene of a victory which he obtained over the Prussians. It was on this ground that Ribot, after praising in earnest language the Franco-Russian entente, and after delicately attributing to the friendship of the Czar the grand reception which the French fleet had met in other countries, including England, proceeded to state that the French republic would continue to be governed by a policy of moderation and coolness. Germany was not referred to, except as "the enemy" in M. Ribot's allusions to Faedherbe's military services.

THE EXILED JEWS.

A Vienna dispatch says that the Israelite Alliance in that city for the relief of fugitives from Russia has more than it can attend to. A party of Jews from the government of Podolaski tell an interesting story of their expulsion. They were farmers and shopkeepers and immediately upon the receipt of the order for them to go to the pale of settlement, they were at once turned out of their houses. They didn't even get an order for their dwellings and the contents, and whole farms in this way were taken possession of by peasantry who never had the slightest title to or claim upon the property. The Vienna papers earnestly advise the Jews to go back to Russia again, on the ground that their numbers are too great for wholesale emigration. The party from Podolaski are now on their way to America.

THE GRAPEGROWERS' DESPAIR.

The claim of the grape growers of Styria that American plants upon which indigenous vines had been grafted, are subject to the fatal phylloxera, has caused much excitement among the cultivators of vineyards. The American plant has been looked to as the ultimate savior of the French and other European vineyards, and should it prove to have the same weakness as the native plant the owners of the vineyards would not know where to turn. Up to this moment their faces are turned towards the American plant.

FALLEN PRINCES.

The papers remark on the peculiar coincidence that just when the Queen of Roumania is apparently in a dying state, the widow of the ruler who was deposed from the throne of Roumania to make way for the Hohenzollern King, is also dying. The House of the Prince Cusa, who formerly ruled Roumania, has been most harshly treated under the reign of King Charles, and besides being brought to poverty his widow has been compelled to resort to menial occupations for existence. This, however, is but an instance of the almost general fate of the more ancient princely houses of the Balkans and Asia Minor, many of whose descendants are doing common labor for a livelihood, or else following brigandage, like Anastatius the brigand chief, who recently captured a number of German travellers on a Turkish train, and whose grandfather was a petty prince in Epirus, deprived of his land and titles by the freak of a Grand Vizier at Stamboul whose ill will he had incurred.

GERMAN RAILWAY SCHEME.

A Berlin despatch says that the scheme for a direct railway from Wurzburg, Bavaria, to Miltenberg, 31 miles distant, also in Bavaria, has been revived, and the Wurzburg Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to further the movement for building the road.

The Wall Street Flurry.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The World this morning says: For years it has been customary for the big financiers to meet in the lobby of the Windsor hotel on Sunday night and swap gossip. Last night the gossipping bee, for some uncountable reason, was but slimly attended. Those who did get around talked about nothing but last week's raid on the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific stocks. None of the Gould clique showed up. If any of them had they would have heard some unpleasant truths, for it seemed to be generally understood that every one was licensed to roast the "Little Wizard" as vigorously as he pleased. The prevailing impression was that the market would recover to-day from the shock which convulsed it on Friday and Saturday, and all agreed that there was no sound reason for the break. Gould had sprung a trick and Wall street had been duped without stopping to think what it was all about. Now that they had opened their eyes they could see that all this flurry was about almost nothing. Gould, his son George, and Russell Sage were reported to have had a consultation and to have decided that it would be unwise for the Missouri Pacific directors to declare a dividend at their next meeting.

THE WESTMINSTER FAIR.

A FINE DISPLAY OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

Fruit, Vegetables, Live Stock, Honey, Etc., of Good Quality—The West Kootenay Mineral Exhibit—The Exhibition a Success Generally.

From the eminence upon which the buildings of the New Westminster Royal Agricultural Society stand the circumjacent country presents a view the reverse of suggestive of a land flowing with milk and honey. The rolling, even mountainous, and heavily wooded landscape which environs the Royal City is more suggestive of sawmills than of husbandry. Entering Agricultural Hall, however, it was soon discovered that appearances are deceptive. The sight that greeted the eye instantly convinces one that beyond the environing hills, somewhere behind the pines through which forest fires have surged, leaving them bleached, gaunt and lifeless, there is a region prolific of the products of the garden and field in all their multifarious variety. To indulge in a bit of paraphrase, we have fruit to the right of us, vegetables to the left of us, while before us there is honey, canned fruits, confectionery and flowers. Of course these do not comprise the entire exhibit. In one corner we have art exemplified both by brush and camera, in another cabinet work and book binding, in another the product of the sawmill, the sash and blind factory, the harness shop and the salmon cannery, in which last industry Westminster takes a just pride. Such, broadly speaking, is the character of the interior of Westminster's agricultural hall. The sight-seer is at once made to understand that Fraser river and vicinity is good for something besides saw mills and salmon canning.

Stress has been laid on fruit and vegetables. This has been done for the reason that, importing largely in these lines, the impression is abroad that the soil and climate of the province are not adapted to their successful cultivation. The exhibit, however, disproves all this. In the apple line, Mr. N. Butehart, Port Moody; Mr. Ferguson, Port Haney; Mr. A. J. Street and Mr. A. Evans, Chilliwack; Mr. George Mead, New Westminster; Mr. Wm. Arthur, Ladner's; Mr. G. W. Henry and Mr. C. Stickney, Port Hammond; Mr. J. Murray, Spence's Bridge; Mrs. L. Hodgson and Miss Norton, Harrison river, took prizes and they were well deserved. And another thing about the exhibit, it will be seen that it is fairly representative of the Mainland, not as confined to the coast but as relating to the interior. Spence's Bridge lies in what is called the arid belt, but Mr. Murray, and as will be shown later on, Mr. Seward, of Lytton, have proved that fruit can be as successfully raised in the interior as on the coast. If land owners would but turn their attention to fruit raising there would be no occasion for this province to import a pound of apples, pears, plums, cherries, or strawberries. Of the varieties of apple which attracted attention, the Golden Gravenstein, Malden's Blush, Greenings and Northern Spy may be mentioned. As to pears, there was an almost endless variety, and among them there were some of monster size and as well flavored as they were large. Mr. T. Seward, Lytton, took first prize in this variety of fruit. The display of plums was magnificent. Jubilee farm, with others took first prizes in this variety of fruit. The exhibit of peaches was small, as was to have been expected. British Columbia lies too far north to raise peaches successfully. The frosts come too early. The exhibit of grapes, also was small. Mr. J. Murray's Concords and Delawares took prizes, but the fact remains just the same, that, as in the case of peaches, this province does not furnish the sunshine which is inseparable from successful grape culture. Of blackberries, (cultivated) Mr. Thomas Cunningham's exhibit was simply immense. They were as large as small apples and correspondingly lucious.

Vegetables were as much a feature of the fair as was the fruit exhibit. The display of potatoes covered a large variety, while in the line of turnips, beets, cabbages and onions it would be difficult to imagine anything finer. The sugar beet was present in all of its craggy ugliness. The exhibit of this variety of beet was not large, but if size counts for anything, the sugar beet can be successfully cultivated in this province. In the pumpkin and squash line specimens were exhibited which it must have required some muscle to load into the wagon. It would be Munchausenish to suggest that a derrick was used, but after a calm survey of the raw material to be worked up into pumpkin pies, the tale of Cinderilla's coach sounds as plausible as a Tory politician's professions of political honesty.

The display of honey in jars and in the comb speaks volumes for the British Columbia busy bee. If the British Columbia hen were half as industrious there would be fewer American eggs imported. Mr. J. S. Smith, of Chilliwack, was the largest exhibitor of jar honey, and Mr. C. A. Cairncross, Elgin, of honey in the comb. In the line of confectionery, the Vancouver Candy Co. was the largest exhibitor. This company means business. Its works at Vancouver are on a large scale, and judging of the character of its exhibit there should be no necessity of importing confectionery in the future. Next we have the British Columbia Fruit and Coffee Co., also situate in Vancouver. This company by importing the raw coffee direct from where it is grown is able to successfully meet eastern competition. In the matter of fruit canning, however, it has not been so fortunate. Labor is higher here than in the east, and so is fruit. In this line the company has been compelled to operate on a small margin of profit.

The display of flowers was large, and among the exhibitors who were awarded prizes for their exhibits were the McTavishes, the Pearsons, the De Becks, the Hodgsons, the Browns and others.

The live stock exhibit was on a par with the other features of the exhibition, and perhaps in some respect superior. Space, however, does not permit the enumeration of the prize drawn. The fact must not be overlooked, however, that among the shee exhibitors the name of the Britis Columbia Cattle Company was conspicuous by its absence.

Another exhibit not less important i its way than those which have been enumerated, was that of minerals, comprising gold, silver, lead and copper ores. The exhibitor was Mr. J. M. Kellie, M.P.P. for West Kootenay, who informed the writer that the collection was as nearly as possible the counterpart of the Toronto exhibit. In the collection were blocks of gray copper, rich in silver, the product of the famous "Silver King" mine and the surrounding group of claims on Toad Mountain. Next were gold ores from the "Rover" and "Eagle" Camps. Besides these were native silver and argentiferous galena, from Hot Springs, lead carbonate from the "Blue Bell" Kootenay Lake, grey copper and lead silver ores from Illecillewaet, superb silver and lead ores from Fish Creek, copper and gold from Gold Hill, and from Trail Creek camp copper and gold specimens. All in the West Kootenay mineral exhibit makes it appear that it cannot be parallelled in any other mining district in Canada, or for that matter on the American continent. With such evidence of the latent wealth of the West Kootenay district before the people of the cities of this province, the effect should be to move capital in that direction. The mountains of West Kootenay are rich in mineral unquestionably, but capital is required to develop the deposits peculiar to this section. If the mineral exhibit at the Westminster fair is worth a cent as indicating deposits of gold and silver, then it will be that West Kootenay mining shares must shortly prove a more attractive field for legitimate investment and speculation than real estate. Great credit is due Mr. Kellie for making public the special claims of Kootenay as a field for mining enterprise. Mr. Kellie is a practical politician in the best sense of the word.

Before closing this imperfect sketch of the Fair, the art corner must be alluded to. The exhibit in this line was not particularly impressive, but it was impossible not to notice two paintings, "Jehu Driving Furiously," and a "Study of the Nude," "Job's Turkey." Jehu is represented standing in a chariot to which three horses are attached. In one hand he is holding the lines, in the other a "Missouri revolver" (a whip with an immensely long lash), and the horses are simply "getting there" with all twelve of their respective feet. Only for Jehu's calm attitude it would be supposed that the horses are running away. Of the other noticeable features of the painting the presence of boulders is certainly not one of the least and it is difficult to refrain from thinking that should the wheels of the chariot come in contact with one of them, Jehu must infallibly get spilled. Glancing at the "blue empyrean" we find it dark and forbidding. Heavy dark clouds have shut out the sun. The time of day might be supposed to be midnight but for a circular rift overhead which gives one an idea of what is meant by a "silver lining." The general idea of the painting is not bad; the artist was serious; but to those unacquainted with the history of the thing, Jehu has the appearance of a man who is madly trying to drive out from under a thunder storm. Not to go into details too closely, it may be remarked as a final observation that Jehu seems to have strictly complied with the requirements of the four-inch wagon tire act.

In the shape of liquid refreshments there was nothing stronger sold on the grounds than ginger ale, while eating booths there were two which were being conducted under the auspices of religious denominations.

"Job's Turkey," or "a study of the nude" was symbolized by a plucked turkey thin of flesh suspended by one leg from a nail on the wall. In point of emaciation "Job's turkey" is as thin as the most exacting critic could ask, while in the matter of color it was also noticeable that the artist succeeded in giving his subject's cuticle the ghastly tint peculiar to deceased fowls whose diet has been spare. Job's turkey was a conspicuous success.

Speaking of fowls carries us outside to where the British Columbia hen was on exhibit. Here were some notable varieties, and one could not help wondering why it is that the province imports so many eggs? It can only be accounted for on two grounds: (1) the British Columbia hen is largely the product of amateurs; (2) the province eats more eggs per capita than any other country under the sun. It is always so where men can afford it.

On the whole, passing over the butter and cheese exhibit, in which there were some splendid samples, the general effect of the fair on the observer is to satisfy him that intelligent application only is necessary to make the province self supporting in respect of staple fruits and vegetable foods. The question of quality and variety has been settled, it is now a question merely of quantity. Our fairs, it may be supposed, will settle this phase of the question, affording convincing proof, as they do, that the soil needs only to be tilled to produce the disposition to settle down to agricultural pursuits. There is money in it. One has only to glance at New Westminster and the people who have made it what it is to convince himself of the truth of this statement. The air of stability about the inhabitants of the Fraser river districts is patent to the most casual observer. It is agriculture that has made them so.

What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

On Saturday evening Chief William, of the Head of the Lake, was badly stabbed in the arm by an Indian named Basille. The latter had eaten dinner in the chief's house and afterwards created a disturbance, being partially drunk. Chief William tried to quiet him, where- upon he attempted to stab him in the breast, cutting his arm severely, and knocking him down with a club; he also assaulted the chief's wife, whose head is in a battered condition. This is the outcome of a long-standing feud be- tween Basille and the chief, who, ac- cording to report, killed Basille's father several years ago near Swan Lake. The Indians of the Head of the Lake are divided among themselves, some for and some against the present chief's claim to the title. Basille has used his club freely on former occasions, and cannot be considered other than a dan- gerous Indian. He fled into the moun- tains the night of the affray, and the chief and his wife lodged a complaint at once before Mr. Dewdney. Mr. Nor- ris, accompanied by a special con- stable, is out after Basille, who, ac- cording to report, camped the other night near Round Lake in company with two white men, but has not yet been captured.

A WARNING.

Advice to Our Young Men and Women.

A wise writer says:—"The excesses of our youth are drafts upon our old age, payable with interest about thirty years after date." The young men and women of our time are too unmindful of health. They imagine that the strength and robustness of youth are inexhaustible, and therefore they feel themselves able to dive deeply into every round of pleasure and excitement. Late hours, insufficient sleep, bad ven- tilation, sudden transitions from heat to cold, over-indulgences and excesses, the bustle of fashion, and rush after social position and wealth, are heavy drafts upon their health, which will cer- tainly drag them down to ruin and de- cay before they attain middle age.

Any ordinary physician can easily point out on the street, market place, or in the church, such subjects as we now refer to. The pallid cheek, the sunken eyes, the emaciated body, the unsteady and trembling hand, the ner- vous disposition, the weak and irreso- lute step—all are sad, painful indica- tions of youthful follies and excesses. God forbid that such men and women will ever become the fathers and moth- ers of the next generation. God help our dear Canada if such be the case. We take it for granted that our young men and women are too proud of the history of their fathers and grand- fathers, and love their country too well, ever to allow such a contingency to arise. They have heard of what science has accomplished for them; they know that from the lap of nature there has been culled a true elixir, a rejuvenator, a health-giving preparation now known as Paine's Celery Compound, which can restore the glow of health to the now pallid countenance, sweep away all forms of nervousness, restore lost vitality, revive the drooping spirits, clear the clouded brain, build anew the body in flesh and muscle, and give new hopes, new joys and new ambitions.

Why delay the use of this God-given remedy? Why will ye longer walk in the bitter road of disease and suffering? This grand and effectual remedy—Pa- ine's Celery Compound—is now with- in reach of all; a remedy that the best physicians of our land are now pre- scribing and recommending. Will you, in the face of such powerful evidence, go on for a few short months or years a burden to yourself and a stumbling- block to others, or will you take hold of this great life restorer, and become a blessing to your family and a benefit to your country?

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kid- ney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hear- ing through a friend, of the wonderful cures ef- fected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back were entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontin- ence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affec- tions of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.

THE EXHIBITIONS.

It is right to expect that the agricultural exhibitions at New Westminster and Victoria, with the accompanying events, will be of much benefit to the province. The fair at the Royal City has been rewarded with the success which its excellence deserved, and the visitors attracted to the fair itself and by the sporting contests at the same time have no doubt carried away a good impression of the city and the province. It is incumbent on Victoria to do at least as well as her mainland sister and give an exhibition that will testify of the richness of our natural resources to the outside world. The managers of the fair here have been energetic and faithful in their work, but they cannot achieve a success without the aid of the public generally. The development of the agricultural capabilities of Vancouver Island and of the province generally has not been so great as it should have been, a defect which may be largely remedied by showing to visitors how great these capabilities are. We want people here who will till our idle lands, so let us give outsiders an idea that there is much to encourage them in settling in the province. The fair and the firemen's tournament are bringing many visitors to the city, and it is important that they should go away with good impressions. The week has unfortunately opened with bad weather, which is unusual here at this season, but we must not be discouraged by this drawback.

THE END OF THE SESSION.

The session of the Dominion Parliament which is expected to close on Wednesday will occupy an important place in the history of Canadian politics. Its memory, too, will exhale anything but grateful odors, for the present generation of Canadians at least. Coming immediately after a general election in which the people were asked to pronounce on a great issue, the session, in the ordinary course of events, might have been expected to exhibit as its main feature the reflection of the people's verdict in the actions of the elective House. Instead of this, however, the bare question of reciprocity with the States has been largely left in the background by events which were not expected by more than a few when the election of last March was held. The important question was of course discussed at length and voted on, the Liberal proposition being voted down by a majority of 26. This majority was much lower than the Government counted on when it undertook to make a premature appeal to the electorate, and the circumstances warrant the conclusion that if the issue before the people had not been clouded by extraneous matters and an appeal ad misericordiam from Sir John Macdonald himself, the vote of the country would have been in favor of unrestricted reciprocity.

The main event of the session was the death of the man who had so long been the central figure in Canadian politics. It was not to be expected that the Conservative leader would enjoy many more years of life, but there is no doubt that his exhausting efforts during the election campaign hastened his death, which came before the session was well under way. The developments since then have furnished a severe commentary on Sir John's political record, and shown how hollow is the claim advanced by himself and by others in his behalf, that he was par excellence the friend of Canada. It was of a piece with his proverbial good fortune that the crushing exposure of the scandals connected with his regime was postponed until after he had left the stage himself. He was wont to consider himself aggrieved by the ventilation of his first great conspiracy against the people, known as the Pacific Scandal, and it is easy to understand that the second exposure of the methods of his Government would have caused him nothing more than the same sort of mental affliction; but it would have been at least a sharp answer to his habitual self-praise. His death spared him, in all likelihood, a good many moments of irritation.

The exposure of the later Ottawa scandals would no doubt have come had Sir John lived, but it is nevertheless remarkable that his removal seemed to raise the cover from a great pool of corruption and allow the noxious stenches to arise all at once. We need not refer at length to the scandals, for all are familiar with their details. Suffice it to say that the Cabinet is shown to be so tainted that it appears impossible for it to so purify itself that it may retain the confidence of the people.

Another crushing blow to Toryism came from the census. This was conclusive proof that so far from the Tory contention being true, that the country is prosperous and all things lovely, Canada has not succeeded in making the progress that was to be expected. Had there been no immigration in the ten years there would have been an actual decrease of population, or, in other words, the sons and daughters of the country have been compelled to go abroad to seek the prosperity which political blundering denied them at home. The small increase of our population, the rapid accumulation of public debt and the failure to develop our great natural resources are sufficient to utterly condemn and discredit the policy of high taxation and trade restriction.

To sum up, the closing session has shown that Tory rule has done practically nothing for the country but corrupt its politics and dishonor its reputation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The election protest in North Victoria, Ont., against J. A. Barron, M.P., Liberal, has fallen through. Peter Moffatt, in whose name the petition was filed, advertises that he was induced to become a petitioner by corrupt promises having been made to him by Samuel Hughes and Hugh McDougall. This is a serious charge, and will no doubt be investigated. Hughes was the candidate who opposed Barron in the Tory interest.

The Conservative report on the case of Edward Cochrane, M.P., for East Northumberland, was too much for one Conservative member to swallow. Col. O'Brien, M.P. for Muskoka, in the debate on the report said: "When this matter was brought before a committee of this House, I think they should deal with it in a different manner and spirit than this committee has done. They should give this House and this country to understand in the plainest terms, that would leave no doubt, the serious nature of these transactions; but this committee have stated their conclusions in terms which I think under the circumstances are contemptible. The simple remark at the end of the report that these transactions are reprehensible, falls altogether to give the country a true idea of their nature, and the voters of East Northumberland, when they read that report, will naturally come to the conclusion that the transactions in which they have been concerned are venial offences and will not consider it any great harm to undertake similar transactions in future." This was a crushing censure, and Col. O'Brien was rewarded with a hiss from the Tory majority when he cast his vote against the motion to adopt the report, while said majority celebrated Mr. Cochrane's triumph by singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The telegraph wires were broken at 12 o'clock and remained useless up to time of going to press. This unusual accident will explain, in a measure, the brevity of our dispatches.

The corporation gravel pits were surveyed and platted under the immediate direction and supervision of the city surveyor, and not by the street inspector.

The Kingston brought 310 passengers from the Sound last evening, the Yosemite about the same number from the Mainland, and the Victorian about 100 from the Sound.

Mrs. Cameron has furnished the rooms over Cochrane & Munn's drug store and is now prepared to take lodgers. The rooms are elegantly furnished and gentlemen in need of them may be assured that they will be well cared for.

A daring burglary took place at Brandon on Friday morning, when two safe crackers entered the Northern Pacific depot, blew the door off the safe, and helped themselves to the money contained therein, consisting of about one hundred dollars. The report of the blasting was very loud, awakening the occupants in the neighboring houses. The concussion broke most of the panes in the depot window, and stopped the clock at 5.25, the hands pointing to the hour of the crime, when sometime later people appeared on the scene. The only clew in possession of the police is that two men were seen shortly afterward hurriedly taking their departure from the scene of operations.

THE GUN.

The shooting match at the Driving Park on Saturday, between the 11 men, each from the Tacoma Rod and Gun Club and the Union Gun Club of this city resulted in a victory for the visitors by three points. The following scores were made out of 25 Peoria black birds:

TACOMA.		VICTORIA.
E. E. Ellis	23	J. Langley
J. M. Bell	18	W. H. Adams
R. S. Albright	15	F. S. Maclure
H. T. Denman	19	H. N. Short

Total	206	Total	20

In the sweepstakes, (10 birds) the positions won were as below:
H. T. Denham, 10; E. E. Ellis, 9; C. Todd, 8; J. C. Maclure, 8; Short, 8; Palmer, 8; Bringham, 8; Eberly, 8. In the double sweeps the leaders were John, 4; Short, 4; Eberly, 4; Minor, 3; Bringham, 3; Bell, 3; Denham, 3; Dodge, 3; Albright, 3; J. Langley, 3.
In the evening the visitors were banqueted at the Hotel Dallas.
The Tacoma boys are spoken of as a jolly set of boys by the Union Gun Club.

THE TURF.

THE JOCKEY CLUB'S MEETING.

An extra race has been made for the fall meeting of the Jockey Club in the trotting for the 2:30 class, for which a purse of $150 is offered. Entries close Wednesday, 30th.
In the Free For All trotting event, pacers and trotters are elegible. The time for sending in entries in this event has been extended to Wednesday.

DEATH OF ST. BELL.

St. Bell, one of the most famous trotting stallions in the United States, died at Franklin, Pa., on Saturday, of colic. He was owned by Mills & Salvely and valued at $100,000. His full brother, Bellboy, was sold at auction two years ago for $51,000. Their sire was Electioneer. St. Bell was bred at Stanford's farm in California.
Among jockeys and horse trainers there is generally found a few men that it would do almost anything to defeat a rival. A trick which was perfoemed at the Victoria Jockey Club's track on Saturday by one of these worthies was as mean a thing as could be perpetrated. Belle Watts, the Victoria mare, has done some good work and there seems to be some one who is trying to do all they can to defeat her. The trick performed on Saturday was evidently with that object in view. Belle Watts' trainer had gone around the track several times with the mare when both wheels came off his sulky, some one having removed the nuts. Luckily the mare stood still and no one was hurt.

QUOITS.

There was some good sport at George Fairbrother's grounds on Saturday afternoon, and the match between Walter Nathan and Walter Adamthwaite was specially interesting 18 yds. 3lb quoits; 50 points. It was a very tight contest indeed and Adamthwaite won by 10 points. The play on both sides was good throughout. Walter Nathan got in three ringers and there were three ties during the game. Adamthwaite is a thorough quoiter and it takes a good man to beat him.

FOOTBALL.

Watty Thomson and Kit. Forrester left Toronto on Tuesday last for New York, whence they sail to Liverpool to-morrow to join the Canadian football team. "Watty" is recognized as the crack "centre" of Canada.

BASEBALL.

The James Bay and Victoria Athletic Clubs teams will cross bats at the Agricultural Society's grounds on Thursday morning at nine o'clock and a close game is expected.

He has been a member of the State Legislature, and is at present a councilman in the city council, Astoria, and a school director and chairman of the board. The Astoria Iron Works, of which he is president, is a thriving concern with large capital and a certainly expanding business.

The Late Mr. A. A. Green.

At the Reformed Episcopal church yesterday morning the service was of a memorial character in honor of the late Mr. A. A. Green. The venerable Bishop devoted his sermon to the occasion, and the choir rendered a very appropriate selection of music.

From Rivers Inlet.

The steamer Princess Louise returned at an early hour yesterday morning from her special trip to Rivers Inlet. She brought down 8000 cases of salmon which are being discharged into the bark Callao. The trip was an uneventful one, the only thing noticeable being the bad weather.

A Heavy Freight.

The steamer Yosemite from the mainland last evening brought down a heavy cargo consisting of about 10 carloads of Chinese and Eastern freight. There was 92 tons of sugar, a carload of flour, one of pickles and preserves, one of condensed milk, 110 cases tea and 180 tons Chinese and European merchandise ex Empress of Japan.

A Programme.

F. W. Smith & Co., have issued a neat and convenient programme of the events of the exhibition, which opens to-morrow. The publishers, of course, have an eye to business, and the little pamphlet contains, besides information adout the exhibition, facts about real estate which the wise investor will give attention to.

The Victorian's Speed.

The C.P. Railway Company's steamer Victorian is beginning to make her presence felt among the steamboats of the Sound. Yesterday for the first time, her speed was tried and proved most satisfactorily. She left Tacoma fifteen minutes later than the City of Seattle last evening and arrived at Seattle before the latter boat. She made the run over from Port Townsend in two hours.

The Stranger Disappeared.

On Saturday night about 11:30 as the steamer Princess Louise was coming through Plumper's Pass a small boat carrying a bow and stern line was sighted. She signalled with her lights for the Louise to go to the port side. When those on board the boat saw the Louise doing this, all the lights were put out and the stranger disappeared. It is supposed to have been some smuggler landing sheep on one of the islands.

Received an Appointment.

Mr. Barton Ward, a well known pioneer of the province, has received an appointment as outside officer of the customs, and left last night on the steamer Michigan for Westminster and Vancouver. Mr. Ward is a son of Col. Ward, who led the Canadian forces in 1812, and is a brother of Charles Ward, the eminent artist of New Brunswick. He received his education at Sandhurst military college, and is a fine linguist, speaking several languages, including two or three native dialects. His many friends will be pleased to hear of his appointment.

A Firm Dissolves.

The coal, wood and lumber firm of McIntosh & Endean has dissolved partnership, Mr. Endean retiring. Mr. S. F. McIntosh will continue the business on his own account. Mr. McIntosh was for a dozen years manager of the Heathorn tannery, and is known to all our business men as a man of stealing honesty and good business experience. He will represent the Royal City Planing Mills and handle New Wellington coal, for which there is a steadily growing demand, and which "sells at sight," as the saying goes. Mr. McIntosh is bound to do a large business, firstly because his reputation is a guarantee of fair dealing, and, secondly, because he offers for sale what the people want.

Pearce is Missing.

Wm. Pearce, the ex-bartender of the Vancouver House, who was arrested in in Port Townsend on Saturday by Police Officer Redgrave has disappeared. Pearce was being brought home on the steamer City of Kingston on Saturday afternoon, and when three miles off Beacon Hill suddenly disappeared. Officer Redgrave was standing near the office with the prisoner. He turned around to get his revolver from the office and when he returned his man had gone. Pearce had taken his coat off twice during the trip and he must have jumped overboard as a thorough search of the steamer did not reveal his whereabouts. The boat was searched from stem to stern and closely watched upon her arrival here. All but $100 of the money stolen was found on Pearce so that the hotel proprietor is only $10 out. The officer was surprised at the disappearance of Pearce, as he seemed so willing to return.

Obituary.

Thomas Anderson, aged about 42 years, died at the Jubilee Hospital yesterday morning. Deceased was unmarried, and was for some time a sailor. He had been ill only a few days.

Police Court Notes.

Police Magistrate Belyea dealt with the following batch of law-breakers this morning: Six drunks, assessed $5 each. Thomas Connor, stealing 7 chickens, one month in jail. Chinese assault case, defendant fined $5 and $2.50 costs. Another assault case was remanded.

Fell from the Loft Window.

A teamster employed by Mr. Mason fell out of the loft window of the stable near the electric light station this morning and broke his leg. He was taken to the Jubilee Hospital, where the injured limb was set. His leg is in a pretty bad condition, and it is feared that he will have to lose it.

A Correction.

The item which appeared in a few copies of Saturday's TIMES referring to Mr. H. F. Heisterman was incorrect, as that gentleman is a great deal better. The news that he was dead came from reliable sources, personal friends of Mr. Heisterman, which goes to show that a great many of those who are so sure about a thing are sometimes mistaken. As soon as the error was discovered the notice was taken out, so that only a few papers within were distributed.

Chief of Consular Bureau.

Dr. T. O. Sinclair, chief of the Consular Bureau of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Sinclair are at the Driard. The doctor is on a tour of inspection visiting the different consuls in Canada. He has held the position of chief of the Consular Bureau for 25 years, the office being one of the few at the United States capital which is not cleaned out when the government of the republic changes. He leaves for Washington to-morrow morning via the C.P.R.

The West Kootenay Exhibit.

Mr. J. M. Kellie, M.P.P. for West West Kootenay, arrived down from New Westminster last night, where he has been attending the fair. Mr. Kellie had on exhibition at that fair a large variety of the ores of his district, the duplicate of the collection that was sent to the Toronto fair. The collection will be on exhibition at the Victoria fair, and it may be presumed will be an object of considerable curiosity. If there is anything in samples as showing the mineral wealth of any particular locality, it should seem that West Kootenay is destined to become the great mining camp of this continent.

A deputation from the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council visited the Trades Council, of Victoria, on Friday night. The business of the deputation related to the purchase of B. C. Refinery Company's sugar in preference to Chinese sugar. The subject was freely discussed, but it being stated that an agreement had been effected between the importers and the company, no resolution was adopted.—Vancouver World.

VICTORIA'S GREAT WEEK.

The Season of Carnival Opens, Though the Rain Dampens it a Little.

Victoria's great week has commenced, and although not typical Victoria weather, the opening promises one of the most brilliant carnival weeks the city has ever had. The day of mossbackism has gone, and a period of activity has set in which will retain for Victoria her foremost rank in the cities of the province. The spurt made by the agricultural society was a creditable one. The consequence is that instead of wending one's way through rural lanes to the cramped exposition grounds on Beacon Hill, one can now drive along a wide thoroughfare, or ride in the street cars to large and handsome buildings and spacious grounds, whose appointments are in every respect as nearly perfect as they could well be. Contractor Lorimer has come up to time with the building, and the painters have about completed their work. Some one remarked to-day that the temperature must be very low on the afternoon when Mr. Lorimer was left behind in any undertaking. To-day the appearance of the buildings is one of bustle and activity. Exhibitors are getting their displays in order amid painters and carpenters, who are taking the remains of the scaffolding and building materials away. Just at present the mixture is somewhat confusing, but a few hours will make a vast difference. The great building, looking so commanding and palatial externally, is equally handsome inside, one of the best features about it being its large and airy windows, which are so placed that not a dark or shady corner is to be found. The electric light is in order, and is being operated by a handsome 50-horse power horizontal engine made by the Albion Iron Works Company. This engine also operates a printing press exhibited by Mr. Munro Miller, who will during the exhibition show the public what the power of the press really is. Savannah, the photographer, who scored successes at the last exhibition, is showing some photographic gems this year also. Weiler Bros. are fitting up a sumptuously furnished suite of rooms; Muirhead & Mann are showing some of the handiwork of their establishment; M. W. Waitt & Co., under the management of Mr. Herbert Kent, are fitting up a music salon; Mr. O. Kell is showing what can be done in canned or rather bottled, British Columbia fruit; and there are hosts of other exhibitors who are working very hard getting their exhibits in order.

From the eastern door the stables and outer offices offer a fine prospect to the visitor. The stables are full of fine bred stock, to which Mr. H. C. Briggs added this morning two stallions and three mares of the magnificent Percheron stock; seven pure bred sheep; two bulls, ten heifers and two cows of the celebrated Holstein stock.

The steamer Belle owned by the Royal City Planing Mills arrived down to-day with the exhibit of the mills, and the Rithet will bring down a large quantity of articles which the Islander was unable to take from Vancouver yesterday. The society is having all these brought over and put under cover as soon as possible.

What was only a few weeks ago a little lane leading down to the track, is now a commanding thoroughfare of 75 feet in width, made so by the generosity and public spirit of several citizens owning land there. Jumbo is improving this to-day, and it is likely that he will persuade it into a good road.

His Worship Mayor Grant has declared Wednesday a public holiday in honor of the exposition, which promises to be not only the greatest ever held in the city of Victoria, but the entire province.

Court 7854 Wellington A O.F.

A new Court of the Ancient Order of Foresters was opened at Wellington last Saturday evening under very favorable auspices. Bros. W. Trickey, District Chief; R. Godding, District sub-Chief; H. L. Salmon, acting District Treasurer; J. R. McKenzie, District Secretary, accompanied by a number of local brethren went up to inaugurate the new Court. They were met at the station by a large number of petitioners for a Dispensation who escorted them to the Wellington Hotel, where a substantial supper awaited the visitors. They then proceeded to Wellington Hall where a Court of the order was instituted under the name of Court "Robert Dunsmuir," No. 7854. The new Court starts with a membership of 40, besides a large number who have expressed a desire to join. The election and installation of officers took place after the Court had been duly established, the following well-known gentlemen being the incumbents: Chief Ranger, J. W. Lewis; Sub Chief Ranger, Andrew Bryden; Treasurer, Alex. Sharp; Secretary, H. R. Gilbert; S.W., Thos. Richards; J.W., David Thomas; S.B., Jas. Colter; J.B., R. Dowdell; Court Surgeon, W. Eberts, M.D. After the ceremonies were ended the brethren sat down to a banquet, the usual toasts being drank. The Victoria brethren were entertained in a right loyal manner, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

We are making special low prices for exhibition week only, commencing to-day, Saturday. Macaulay & Higginbottom, 74 Yates street.

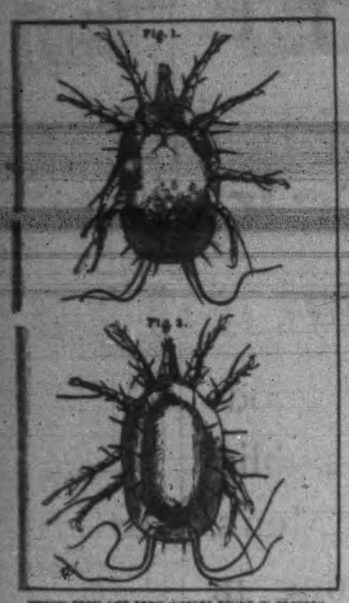
CHINESE - SUGARS; - WHAT - IT - IS - WE - MAY - BE - EATING!



DRAWN FROM LIFE FROM INSECTS FOUND IN GROCERY

In view of the introduction to the Province recently of considerable quantities of Chinese Sugars, it may be as well that the Public should be informed, on the very highest possible authority, of the danger that may be attendant upon their use.

Professor Cameron, Public Analyst, Dublin, a gentleman who has made it his special business to examine all kinds of Foreign Sugars, Refined and other, says that certain kinds of them should never be used. He states that they contain great numbers of DISGUSTING INSECTS, which produce a DISGUSTING DISEASE. Their shape is very accurately shown in the accompanying cut, which is magnified two hundred diameters. Figure 1 is the under side, and Figure 2 the upper. The Professor's description is as follows:—

"This insect ('the Acarus Sacchari') is a formidably organized, exceedingly lively, and decidedly ugly little animal. From its oval-shaped body stretches forth a proboscis terminating in a kind of scissors, with which it seizes its food. Its organs of locomotion consist of eight legs, each jointed and furnished at its extremity with a hook. In the Sugar its movements from one place to another are necessarily very slow, but when placed on a perfectly clean and dry surface, it moves along with great rapidity." He adds that the number of "Acari' found in Unrefined Sugar is "sometimes exceedingly great, and in no instance is the article quite free from either the insects or their eggs." He further says:—"The Acari Sacchari" do not occur in Refined Sugar of any quality, because they cannot pass through the charcoal filters of the Refinery, and because Refined Sugar does not contain any nitrogenous substance upon which they can feed."

COOLIE - MADE - AND - ALL - UNREFINED - SUGARS - SHOULD - NEVER - BE - USED!

Besides its being impossible for Canadian Labor to compete with Coolie Labor, rice fed and under paid, it is well known that Eastern Countries have always been the breeding ground for leprosy and all other loathsome and horrible human diseases, and hand labor there is so cheap that there is no inducement to employ machinery. Home Refined Sugar, on the contrary, is never touched by the human hand from the moment it reaches the refiner until it leaves him a perfectly safe and purified article.

Use, therefore, Only Home Refined Sugars; They Are Absolutely Unadulterated, Pure and Cheap.

WORKING CARGOES ON SUNDAYS.

To THE EDITOR:—A committee of the Executive Council of British Columbia reported on 10th November, 1890:—

"The committee observe that the closing of the Custom House on the Sunday does not prevent labor, and that the work necessary to the loading of steamers and the taking on board of coal is carried on regularly on that day. This applies more particularly to coasting vessels and to steamers plying between ports in British Columbia and the United States. . . . The committee are informed that no rules or regulations of public bodies exist to prevent Sunday labor."

This Sunday coaling and cargo work seriously affects the moral and spiritual, no less than the physical, well being of the crews frequenting your harbors, preventing united worship on board, not only at the time, but subsequently when at sea, as captains and crews will not resume divine services after taking part in such breaches of the fourth commandment for the sake of mere private gain.

It is especially hard on the officers and engineers, who, though the loading and unloading may be done by lands men, are engaged on the day of rest in trying cargo and coals when they should be recuperating their strength by rest, recreation and worship, for their arduous duties at sea. And it places those considerate shipowners who forbid the practice on board their ships at a serious disadvantage in competing with mail steamers and with their inconsiderate rivals in trade.

It is 40 years ago since I was in British Columbia, and I cannot offer any opinion on local necessities. But if seven days weekly labor be necessary for successful trade with you, it should be equally so for trade in the United Kingdom, in which the working of cargoes on Sundays is prohibited by acts of Parliament, though thousands of laborers in London and Liverpool have no special religious regard for the Sunday as the Lord's Day; also for those Colonies with representative institutions in which the popular vote has also prohibited the Sunday working of cargoes; also for the Presidency of Bombay with its heathen coolies willing to work cargoes on Sundays, but who are prevented doing so by the Bombay Government order of 1882, which charges a fee for a "permit" to do such work; and also in the Treaty ports of Southern China, in which it is practically forbidden in European ships.

The Colony of Hongkong has, thanks to the local press greatly, passed a Sunday cargo-working ordinance which requires a "permit" to work cargo to be taken out before the Sunday at a cost of from £15 to £40, according to the tonnage of the ships. It came into operation on the 1st of August, and the secretary of state for the colonies has issued a circular to the governors of certain small crown colonies in which seven days weekly work afloat prevails, suggesting them "to consider the advisability of enacting a similar measure in the colony under your administration."

May I ask you to ascertain the views of the captains, officers and crews frequenting British Columbia harbors, and to open your columns to the discussion of their opinions and to statements of the facts.

The legislative restrictions on coaling and cargo work on Sundays which is right at home and in the other colonies, cannot be wrong in British Columbia.

SAM GREER AT BAY.

A DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT IN THE FACE.

An Unfortunate Climax to a Long Dispute Between the C. P. R. and Sam Greer—Greer Made a Prisoner and Now in Vancouver Gaol.

The Vancouver World gives the following particulars about the shooting of a deputy sheriff by Sam Greer. The case of Smith and Angus vs. Greer, which has been in the law courts of this Province and in the Legislature since 1884, is familiar to many of the World's readers. The dispute arose over a section of valuable land fronting on English Bay near the mouth of False Creek and intermixed within the land grant donated by the Provincial Government to the Canadian Pacific Railway for bringing the terminus of the line to Coal Harbor and English Bay from Port Moody. In the spring of 1884 Mr. Greer acquired the right of a half-breed to this and other lands, also that of another party to a tract of land over which the dispute has been pending so long. The land in question the Government claimed was a reserve before Mr. Greer had any interest therein. This view the court sustained as did also the Legislature before which it came up for hearing. The Canadian Pacific then became plaintiffs, and have ever since been pushing the case, claiming that under the conditions of their agreement with the Provincial Government the land was theirs. The different courts have also upheld this contention but Mr. Greer, with wonderful pertinacity, firmly adhered to the belief that his contention was correct and that the land was his. Both sides have expended a large sum of money in pushing as well as defending the case. Last March an ejectment writ was issued in the case giving possession of the property to the plaintiffs as trustees of the Vancouver townsite for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. It was hoped by the defendant that a new trial would be granted him. However, the right of appeal was dismissed. The execution of the writ has been withheld ever since in the hope that Mr. Greer would quietly surrender possession of the property without further trouble. Attempts of a similar nature had been made previously, but without success. Sam held the fort and bade defiance to all and sundry to remove either himself or a member of his family from off the property. Single handed, but at the muzzle of a rifle, he has driven intruders off, and in a manner defied the law, the Canadian Pacific Railway and its edicts. At last it became necessary to take decisive action, and as he had failed to vacate, it was deemed advisable to compel him to do so, and that at once. The sheriff was instructed to enforce the majesty of the law without any further delay. This morning Deputy Sheriff Armstrong, of New Westminster accompanied by Provincial Police G.A. Calbeck, of Moodyville, and Sheriff's Officer Patterson and Officer Sherley, of this city, and another proceeded to the house in a C.P.R. engine, accompanied by a gang of men in a box car sent thither to the scene by the railway company.

Armed with the proper authority, the officers of the law and those accompanying them proceeded to the disputed territory. When near the residence of Mr. Greer, he was observed walking on the track. Divining the intention of the officers and those accompanying them, Mr. Greer ran towards his house shouting to his wife, who was standing in the door, to shut and bar it at once, which she did. Greer was in advance of the posse and he also succeeded in reaching his residence and entering it before they reached the scene of action.

Officer T. J. Armstrong went round to the back door and after trying to open it called out "Open this door, Greer." Greer responded by saying "Go away from there, or I'll make it hot for you," or words to that effect.

The sheriff announced that he had a writ to serve upon him (Greer) and wanted the door opened. Without another word being exchanged, some person, presumably Greer, fired a shot through the door. Some half dozen of the bullets struck and entered Mr. Armstrong's left cheek, one also going through his clothes and burying itself in his breast over his heart. His clothes were also badly torn and the buttons opened, some having disappeared altogether. When picked up by his fellow officers Armstrong presented a pitiful sight, but said he was not seriously wounded. He was cared for as best they could under the circumstances. He was brought to the city, and Dr. Wilson attended to his injuries. Nothing further was then done in the direction of gaining admission. The party returned to the city where a warrant was sworn out for Greer's arrest on the charge of shooting with the intention to commit murder. Greer was brought into the city about four o'clock and lodged in gaol.

How Indians Enforces Morality.

BIRDSEYE, Ind., Sept. 26.—Mrs. Harmon, a woman of loose character, living at Mentor, was last night visited by a body of thirty men, who tied her to a post and applied fifty lashes to her bare body. Her body was cut from head to foot as if by a knife. Across her abdomen was a gash twelve inches long and so deep as to leave the bowels exposed. This community is enraged that such an awful thing should have happened.

Purify

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all disease of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

Your Blood

If you need a good blood purifier or building up medicine, be sure to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Further information and statements of cures sent free to all who address us as below.

ESQUIMALT DISTRICT.

VALUABLE LANDS AT

Langford Plains and Neighborhood

I have been instructed to sell by auction at my salesrooms, Fort and Langley streets,

Section 99—Containing 114 acres, more or less. This section forms part of the celebrated Langford Plains property, well known as a favorite spot for public picnics. A large part of this section is open and dry land, as level as a billiard table; the scenery is very pretty, the grounds having scattering oak trees through it, fringed with a comparatively light growth of fir and other trees in the background. This section partially fronts on the south side of a beautiful sheet of water known as Florence Lake. The Goldstream wagon road runs through the southern portion of this lot, and the E. & N. railway runs within 25 chains of the southern boundary, thus giving easy and cheap access to it.

Section 113—Containing 143 acres, more or less, adjoining and north of Section 99. This section takes in nearly the whole of Florence Lake. There is a large quantity of good timber on a knoll at the northeast boundary of this section.

These two properties are certainly the making of the finest recreation grounds in the neighborhood of Victoria City. The land in Section 99, in its native state, has no equal for a race track, cricket, baseball grounds and other sports; and the beautiful surrounding scenery is unsurpassed; the advantages of Florence Lake for boating and camping are splendid, and hunters are in the heart of a fine game country. These two sections will be sold together.

Section 112 A—Containing 68 acres, more or less.

Sections 116 and 85—Containing 141 acres, more or less. The Goldstream wagon road runs through the lots. These lots have a frontage on Langford Lake, and will be divided into four lots of about 35 acres each, and each lot will have a frontage on the lake. This property commences at the east end of the lake.

Lot 67—Containing 100 acres.
Lot 68—Containing 100 acres.

Both these lots are at the junction of the Sooke and Metchosin roads.

Terms of Sale—Half cash, balance in twelve months at seven per cent.

PORT SIMPSON, B.C.

I have placed with me for sale 200 lots forming a part of Port Simpson, and joining the land of Messrs. R. P. Rithet and Frank S. Barnard. The position of Port Simpson, its facilities, and its future are so well told and explained in Mr. Sandford Fleming's report to the Government, and by Mr. Tuttle in his book entitled "Our Northern Land," that it needs no booming. The property placed on the market is considered A 1, and I have every confidence in offering these 200 lots to my clients. The titles are good. The price of the lots will be $90 inside, and $110 for corners. Terms:—One-third cash, and the balance in four and eight months. For maps, terms, etc., address:—
